

Women in Data Science Worldwide

Middlebury

NOVEMBER 8

3:00 - 6:00 PM

HILLCREST 103

HEALTH AND SOCIETY

INTERESTED IN DATA SCIENCE?

Come hear four speakers talk about their use of data science in researching infectious disease, artificial intelligence, mental health, gender, and more!

midd.data

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
3:10 PM

KAITLYN COOK

Professor of Statistics and Data Science, Smith College

Come hear from a biostatistician who has worked with infectious disease treatment and prevention! Other research of hers has focused on COVID-19 treatment and prevention, pediatric sleep medicine, pregnancy outcome prediction, cancer diagnosing, and statistical genetics.

PANEL AND Q&A
4:10 PM

MAKAYLA SWACIAK

Data Science Epidemiologist, Vermont Dept. of Health

LAUREN BIESTER

Professor of Computer Science, Middlebury College

ISABELLE LANGROCK

Professor of Sociology, Middlebury College

R CODING WORKSHOP
5:15 PM

- Never used R? Come find out how to get started!
- Have some experience? Let's visualize some data!

BRING LAPTOPS TO PARTICIPATE!

SNACKS, REFRESHMENTS, AND STICKERS PROVIDED!